Cambridge - Heidelberg Festival

In April several Bar Hill families participated in the Cambridge-Heidelberg Festival by hosting 13 German visitors from Emmerstgrund, an outlying suburb of Heidelberg. Our visitors were here for six days and during that week we developed many wonderful friendships and feelings of good will. All of us enjoyed ourselves immensely and feel that it was a most worthwhile experience. Not only did we make friends with our German visitors but also we developed a true community spirit amongst ourselves.

I would personally like to thank all those who acted as hosts, their wonderful hospitality and generosity ensured that the week was such a tremendous success. I know that our German visitors were most impressed with Bar Hill and return to Emmertsgrund with nothing but praise for our village. My thanks must also be extended to the Social Club who hosted us for an evening's entertainment and also to Canon Tibbatts who conducted us on a tour around Ely Cathedral.

We have been invited back to Emmertsgrund next spring and the original host families are going to form a small committee to organise the trip. We hope that other people from Bar Hill will be able to come with us on the return visit and that other exchanges between our two communities will be forthcoming. We shall keep everybody informed as to our progress.

Health Centre Alteration Funds

As a result of the recent coffee morning, bring and buy, grand raffle and individual donations, the amount of money raised stands at over £200. Dr. Newsom and the staff at the Health Centre would like to thank all those members of the community who contributed to the success of the fund raising activities. The money has been sent to the Cambridge District Health Authority and it is hoped that they will contribute additional funds to enable us to make the following alterations :-

1. A hatchway to the dispensary (already installed).
2. Exit through the reception desk.
3. Glass screen at the reception desk.

The winners of the main raffle prizes were as follows : - Dinner for two at the Cunard Cambridgeshire - Miss H. Whipp. Cam Gas Service Voucher - Mr. J. Pace. As Mr. Pace does not own a car, Cam Gas have very kindly agreed to substitute a more suitable prize for him. Thanks also to Master Carpeting, Greene King, Whitbreads, Canada Dry, H. H. Electronics, Figtrees Home for the Elderly and all others who donated raffle prizes.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

1 Pheasant Rise,
Bar Hill.
April 7th.

Dear Sir,

It was with regret and almost annoyance that I read the editorial, written by the Treasurer, in this month's Bar Hill News.

Quite contrary to his opinion that there's a lack of community spirit evident in Bar Hill I have found since coming here that a community spirit is very much in evidence.

One only has to read through the Bar Hill News to realise that there are probably more organisations in this village than any other surrounding ones. These did not suddenly spring up over night, but by the hard work of many individuals, to not only launch their organisation but also to keep it going.

We must realise that a community spirit cannot be forced on us, it is something that voluntarily comes about and that it has and will continue to grow and develop along with the village of Bar Hill.

Yours sincerely,

Robin M. Cruse (Mrs.)

Three Ducks on King's Parade

WHERE ELSE but in Cambridge would one step out of a book-shop and step on a duck ?

"Three ducks on King's Parade" might be an addition to, a variant of, "a partridge in a pear tree" but it wasn't even Christmas. It was two Mallard Ducks and a Drake on a smell March morning and I almost trod on the somnambulist on the pavement. The Drake and co-Duck were out on the cobbles with an open red Flat oozing gently by.

There had been twenty minutes warmish drizzle, gossamer almost as a Scotch mist and the sun was just breaking through. The pavement member of "Anas Platyrhycos" might as well have been "on a trip" for all the global world meant to her but the other two were dabbing at spattered raindrops sun-drying rapidly. Not even puddles. But whatever food they sought, they gave food for thought. They knew more of freedom than those who passed by.

Framed by Henry VIII's Chapel as a backcloth no dramatist ever dreamed of, it only needed Sappho, seated on King's low wall, strumming her lyre, and the scene would have been, not sacreligious, but idyllic. Modern Athens and the Golden Age re-born to gladden the heart of man.

But scarcely two stones' throw away, there was music in the Lion complex, free, because if unsolicited, it is only nominally soliciting. There are purists as well as puritans who would abolish it. To the latter, one can only say, "Think not because thou art virtuous, there are no longer cakes and ale".

To the purist, one must give a more reasoned answer. Truly, it is a shock to both eye and ear when the bow is grasped mid-haft like a hammer; the sonsy girl-flautist may lack tempo and one morning a howler-monkey on the saxophone destroyed the local ambience. The staircase leading to Ronelle's had to be underpinned. But, generally speaking, where virtuosity lacks, there is no dearth of zest, gusto, "attack". The Spirit of Youth is in the air; yes, permeating some not so young.

Above all, there is Jerry the One Man Band, stalwart, rubicund, ever smiling even when performing - how does he do it ? - beloved of all Cambridge, dividing his music between the city and his native Holland. Good luck to them.

Sappho would have out-busked them all.

Even Jerry.

SAVE THE CHILDREN FUND

The result of the Jumble Sale was £73. This was a splendid result. Well done to all who gave jumble and those who helped me on the day.

Thank you,

THE SUNSHINE PLAYGROUP's Jumble Sale (as seen on T.V.) was a great success and we would like to thank all those who gave us their support in raising £310.00, a tremendous start for Bar Hill's new playgroup.

We would also like to thank the local retailers for their interest and support in this our first venture, particularly John's Fish & Chip Shop, Mr. D. Bowes of Master Flooring and Tesco's for their generous contributions.

JIGSAW LOAN SCHEME

The Toy Library will be starting its Jigsaw Loan Scheme on Tuesday 11th May. Although we hope that this will be of particular interest to older residents, anyone of whatever age, who likes doing jigsaw puzzles is welcome to use the scheme. It will operate from the Church Centre every Tuesday afternoon from 2.30pm until 3.30pm. Jigsaws may be borrowed for up to one month for a charge of 5p per jigsaw. If you would like to use the scheme, but are housebound, please ring me and we will arrange for someone to call round with our stock of puzzles. We could still do with more puzzles to loan out, so if anyone has any jigsaw puzzles of whatever standard, that they have finished with, I would be very pleased to hear from them. We would also be glad to hear from anyone who would be willing to take a turn at helping on Tuesday afternoons.

At the present we are distributing the Spring/Summer Webb Ivory Catalogues around the village. Last years' efforts helped our fund raising by £200, so your support is greatly appreciated. Fund raising is one way in which we cover the cost of new equipment and endeavour to keep fees down with inflation as it is every penny raised helps us to achieve this aim.

We hope to be able to hold a Spring Fashion Show soon with the help of Angela and Jon Marc of the Mall. As our previous shows were well supported, we look forward to seeing you in the near future. Look out for the posters around the village.

Finally, I'd like to wish the children that start school after the Easter holidays good luck in their new and most important venture of their lives. And to all the new three year olds starting Playgroup, welcome.

THE CO-WORKERS OF MOTHER TERESA, BAR HILL

The Co-Workers of Mother Teresa are lay people of all ages and all denominations who wish to help Mother Teresa with her work among the poor people of the world.

Mother does not ask us for money, she asks us to give a little of our time and effort.

The things - clothes - which others regard as of no further use to them, we collect. We ask you to save old tights and these are sent to India just as they are, padding for pillows and mattresses. Also for padding on top of bandages for the hands and feet of those suffering from Leprosy as extra protection. We ask for clothes make of cotton and polyester. Dresses are unpicked and remade into pinafore dresses and shorts for the little ones. Shirts, we cut off the worn part of the collars, neaten the bands, cut the sleeves short and off these go too.

We ask also for woollen garments in good condition which we unpick and make into blankets - squares 6" - 24 squares to a blanket, also vests and cardigans for babies.

Mother also has two houses for the poor and destitute in London. We ask for good clean jumble, mens, womens and childrens.

We meet on the first Tuesday of each month from 8.00pm here at 61 Hollytrees, and our next meeting will be on 4th May. Alternatively, if anyone would find it easier to come for an afternoon rather than an evening, I shall be at home during the afternoon on days when a Mother Teresa meeting is planned, so do come then if you prefer. If you would rather work on your own at home and do not like or cannot get to meetings, please do not let that stop you.

Remember to help Mother Teresa in her wonderful work does not cost money. I have all the patterns you require.
PLEASE HELP.

This is the major fund raising event of the year for the support of the school, and is organised by the Parent-Teacher Association. As usual we rely very heavily on your help and support. In particular we would like donations in kind for the following stalls:-

Tombola - bottles, tins and preserves
Books, Comics and Records

Cakes and other refreshments
